Chestnut Hill College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities generally made available to its students. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origins, sex, disability or age or on the basis of any other criteria that is inconsistent with state or local laws in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Chestnut Hill College is committed to providing equal educational opportunities for qualified students. The college is in compliance with applicable federal and state law. Disclosure of a disability is voluntary and confidential. To access services, students must submit documentation to verify eligibility under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Documentation must state the nature and duration of the disability and provide adequate information to support reasonable accommodations. Chestnut Hill College reserves the right to request additional information if necessary especially in the cases where re-certification of a disability is warranted.

Documentation should be submitted to Jackie deMarteleire, Director of Academic Advising, Saint Joseph Hall. Phone 215.248.7141.
