TUITION

Tuition will be charged at the undergraduate rate until you graduate. Financial aid is not available during the summer terms before you graduate, so please discuss your financing plan with a Financial Aid Counselor as soon as possible: finaid@chc.edu. The current tuition rate for graduate courses is $562 to $610 per credit, depending on your program.

Once you graduate, you will be eligible for federal Stafford Loans. Always take out the least amount possible when designating your desired loan amount. There are also a limited number of graduate assistantships, which can help subsidize your graduate education costs.
