Off-site locations

In addition to the main campus, classes are also offered at four convenient off-site locations: Father Judge High School in Northeast Philadelphia, Bonner Prendergast Catholic High School in Drexel Hill, and The University Center on both the Blue Bell and Pottstown Campuses of Montgomery County Community College.

A student may take courses for the Bachelors of Science degree in Human Services at the Blue Bell, Pottstown, or Main Campus locations. Courses are also offered for the Combined B.S. and M.S. degree at the Blue Bell, Pottstown and Main Campus locations.

Marta Pecharo, Class of 2014

B.S. in Human Services

How has this major been beneficial to you in your career, or how has it prepared you to pursue your desired career?

“Choosing to get my degree formalizes a vocation I had already chosen. The Human Service major opened up areas of knowledge to which I only had minimal exposure. It has also honed skills to which I had already developed through volunteering.”

Transferring Credits

Students can transfer up to 75 credits from another accredited college or university. Prior Learning Assessment options can also help you earn credits for on-the-job experience and training programs.
