Chestnut Hill College offers a Bachelor of Science (BS) in four teacher education preparation programs. Upon successful completion of all requirements, students may apply to the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) for Certification. In addition, teacher candidates must pass the appropriate PA Education Certification Tests (PECT) before applying for PDE Certification. The four programs are listed below. More information on each program is found under the specific subject area in this catalog.

Early Education Dual (PreK to 4) and Special Education (PreK to 8)

This is a combined program leading to Pennsylvania Department of Education certification in both Early Education and Special Education.

Elementary/Middle-Level Education (grades 4 to 8) with a minor in Special Education

Elementary/Middle-Level teacher candidates must select an area of concentration. CHC offers five certification areas:

- English, Reading and Language Arts
- English, Reading, Language Arts, and Mathematics
- English, Reading, Language Arts and Science
- Mathematics and Science
- Social Studies

A minor in special education is part of each Elementary/Middle Level program. A minor in Special Education does not lead to Pennsylvania Department of Education certification in Special Education.

Co-Major in Secondary Education (grades 7 to 12) with a minor in Special Education

Students may pursue a Co-Major in Secondary Education while majoring in:

- Biology
- Chemistry
- English Literature
- English Literature and Communication
- French
- History
- Mathematics
- Mathematics and Computer Science
- Spanish

A minor in special education is part of each Secondary Education program. A minor in Special Education does not lead to Pennsylvania Department of Education certification in Special Education.

Major in Music Education (grades K – 12) with an option to minor in Special Education

Education Music teacher candidates must select an area of concentration. CHC offers three concentrations:

- Voice
- Primary Instrument
- Piano

A minor in special education (6 courses) is an option for the Music Education Program. A minor in Special Education does not lead to Pennsylvania Department of Education certification in Special Education. However, PDE does require all education teacher candidates to be prepared to address the needs of diverse students. CHC teacher candidates meet this requirement through ESL Foundations and Methods and three additional special education courses.

Chestnut Hill College also offers Montessori Education Certificate Program (3 to 6 year-olds) through the American Montessori Society. Students interested in becoming Montessori teachers may take coursework in the College's Montessori Teacher Preparation Program. Successful completion of this program leads to the American Montessori Society credential. Students interested in Montessori Education should contact the Montessori Program Director at 215.248.7123.

Mission

The programs combine a sound liberal arts education with specific training in educational and child/adolescent development, in curriculum methods and materials, and extensive fieldwork. The mission is to build on the intellectual and holistic foundation of the mission of Chestnut Hill College by helping students develop the professional skills and attitudes to educate a diverse community of learners and to foster a deep commitment to teaching and lifelong learning.

Departmental Honors

Eligibility is determined by mastery of the major field and by general ability. To be eligible a student must have declared a major, have achieved a grade point average of 3.6 or higher in the major and an overall grade point average of 3.5 or higher, and completed 60 semester hours toward his/her degree (12 of which must be credits in the major). In addition, the student must have the recommendation of the faculty in the major department. Students not meeting this criteria might be recommended for the program by the major department. In most instances, students will receive a formal, written invitation early in the fall semester of their Junior year. The Departmental Honors program provides an opportunity for independent study and research culminating in an Honors thesis submitted in the spring of Senior year. All students who have successfully completed the Honors Program will be recognized with Honors in their Major at the annual Honors Convocation and on their academic transcripts. In addition, the title of the completed Honors Thesis will appear on the academic transcript.

Honor Societies and Memberships

Kappa Delta Epsilon is an honorary professional society, the purpose of which is to promote the cause of Education by fostering a spirit of fellowship, high standards of scholastic attainment, service, and professional ideals among its members. Requirements include an overall GPA of 3.00 or higher, Junior status, and formal acceptance into the Education Department. Eligible students must be approved by the Department.

Membership in the Council for Exceptional Children is open to all Education majors and minors. The Council provides students with opportunities to become knowledgeable with the latest research on the educational needs of children with disabilities, to foster a spirit of educational fellowship and to provide service to students, schools, and organizations working in the areas of special education.

Career Connections, Public Speaking and Technology Requirements

Students majoring in Education fulfill their career connections requirement through Fieldwork, Clinical/Student Teaching and Student Teaching Seminar experiences. The public speaking requirement is fulfilled in EDUC-498: Senior Seminar in Education and reinforced in Fieldwork, Clinical/Student Teaching as well as methods and writing courses. Education majors fulfill the technology requirement as part of field experience portfolios, student teaching, and courses in teaching methods and assessment.

Qualifications for all Pre-Service Teacher Preparation Programs

A student will be classified as an education/preliminary major upon acceptance into the College. However, formal acceptance into the Education Division occurs between 48 and 60 credit hours upon completion of Pre-Professional benchmarks including passing a basic skills test or submitting qualifying SAT/ACT scores. An overall GPA of 3.0 or above is required for formal admission into the Education Department and for graduation. Students must successfully complete all required coursework, field experiences, and student teaching. A passing grade for student teaching does not guarantee recommendation for PDE certification. Students must earn a grade of C- or better (1.70) to successfully complete the requirements for the major. Candidates may need to retake courses with C- grades.

Competencies and Portfolio Development

All Early Education, Dual (Pre-K to Grade 4) and Special Education (Pre-K to Grade 8); Elementary/Middle Level Education (Grade 4 to 8); and Secondary Education Co-Majors must meet specific competencies as defined by the Pennsylvania Department of Education. Pre-service candidates meet these competencies by successfully completing coursework, field experiences, portfolio development, and student teaching (See the Education Department Handbook for details.)

Elementary/Middle-Level Education (Grades 4 to 8)

Chestnut Hill College offers the Bachelor of Science (BS) in Elementary/Middle-Level Education (Grades 4 to 8) with a minor in Special Education. In addition, Majors must choose a concentration for recommendation for PDE Certification:

English/Reading/Language Arts (ERLA)	Science and Mathematics
English/Language Arts/Reading/Mathematics (ERLA-Math)	Social Studies
