

The Biomedical Distinguished Lecture Series and the Center for Concussion Education and Research

presents

27th Annual Biomedical Distinguished Lecture

Title of Lecture: Sport Related Concussion: What We've Learned and Where We're Heading

Speaker: David Webner, MD, FAMSSM

Team Physician, Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer
Team Physician, United States Olympic Men's Soccer Team (Under 23)
Director, Sports Medicine Fellowship and Running Medicine
Crozer-Keystone Health System

Bio: Dr. David Webner is the team Team Physician for the Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer and the United States Under 23 Men's Soccer Team. He is also Director of the Sports Medicine Fellowship and the Director of Running Medicine of Crozer-Keystone Health System. Dr. Webner is a Fellow of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine and is Board Certified in Brain Injury Medicine, Sports Medicine and Family Medicine. His research focuses on Sports Concussion, Marathon Medicine, Athletic Disordered Eating, NSAIDs in Athletics, and Stress Fractures in Athletes. Dr. Webner completed his medical degree at Sackler School of Medicine, Tel Aviv Isreal, a residency in Family Medicine and Community Health at the University of Pennsylvania and a fellowship in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Crozer-Keystone Health System.

Date: Wednesday March 11th

Time: 2:00-4:00

Location: East Parlor, Saint Joseph Hall

Contact: Dr. William Ernst
215-262-0741
Associate Professor of Psychology
Executive Director, Center for Concussion Education and Research
Email: ernstw@chc.edu