Mary Beth Hamm, SSJ is the Social Justice Coordinator for the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Chestnut Hill. In this capacity she serves as staff to Congregational leadership, convenes and participates in the work of the SSJ Commission for Justice, coordinates the Congregation’s Socially Responsible Investment activities, and engages the Congregation on various justice issues including sustainability, climate change, and care for Earth.

Sister Mary Beth is a member of the Philadelphia Area Coalition for Justice and Peace, the Sisters of St. Joseph International Justice Team, and the Philadelphia Area Coalition for Responsible Investments as well as other local and national coalitions. She serves as a Board Member of NETWORK, a national Catholic Social Justice lobby, and Change for Global Change, a non-profit charitable organization that provides grants for sustainability projects in areas where the sisters of St. Joseph minister nationally and internationally.