Chestnut Hill College’s Institute for Forgiveness and Reconciliation presents

A Conversation that Matters:

Women Deacons are a Thing of the Past

The History of Women in Christian Ministry & History’s Promise for the Future

Featuring:

Dr. Phyllis Zagano
Author, Scholar, and National Catholic Reporter Columnist

Come listen to and converse with Dr. Phyllis Zagano, world recognized expert on this topic, as she reflects with us on the historical presence and contributions of Women as Deacons in the Catholic Church and what restoring their ordination might mean for the Church today. Engage her research findings which reveal the many ways that women religious have taken up the role of deacons without the full authority given with ordination.
