WHY A MASTER'S IN HUMAN SERVICES MANAGEMENT AT CHESTNUT HILL COLLEGE?

The Master of Science (M.S.) program is for those who aspire to contribute to the field of Human Services in a leadership capacity. This program develops skill sets related to leadership development, financial responsibility, and human resource, all designed to help students secure management positions. Students supplement their professional development with work learning to manage a broad range of service-oriented organizations including non-profit and community organizations, criminal justice systems, health and human service agencies, residential programs, and educational institutions.

All current faculty have held a management position in the field of Human Services. This ensures our faculty not only have the academic expertise but also the practical experiential knowledge.

OUR GRADUATES HAVE OBTAINED ROLES AS:

- Program Director
- Assistant Director
- Residential Manager
- Case Management Director/Supervisor
- Nonprofit Manager
- Service Coordinator Director
